

JEREMY WILLIAMS TAKES A TIME-OUT JUDGE RUBY J. THOMAS

JEREMY WILLIAMS TAKES A TIME-OUT

by Judge Ruby J. Thomas

Jeremy Williams was so close to going home, but he found himself back in detention for three more days – this time for disrespecting the Judge. Jeremy hated to admit that he needed this time-out to sort through his troubled past and make some better choices about the way his life was going. But action speaks louder than words. When Jeremy seeks solace and help from two of his “homies” from detention, his life once again spins out of control, and he must inevitably come to grips with just who is Jeremy Williams and where he is headed in life.

Along with a compelling story and powerful life skills tools – The Wise-Choice Making Mentor Process™ and The Wise-Choice-Making Mentor Worksheets™, are Discussion Questions and a Glossary of helpful and easily understood terms for juveniles and their parents and guardians. Additional scenarios and worksheets, and even a rap song called, “Jeremy’s Song - Your Choices, Your Consequences,”™ are included. Readers are bound to come away with a positively new and improved way of “handling their business”.
